Murmur Communications Sponsors Women's Networking Group

The company offers pro bono services to a new networking group, Southern California Ladies in Corporate Social Responsibility

TORONTO, CANADA (MARCH 10, 2010) – Murmur Communications is pleased to announce that it has agreed to provide pro bono services to a new networking group based out of Los Angeles, California. The group, Southern California Ladies in Corporate Social Responsibility, is a newly formed networking group for women in the fast-growing corporate social responsibility sector. Murmur Communications will be providing its design and writing services to the group in exchange for recognition in the group's marketing materials.

"I'm really grateful to have the opportunity to sponsor such a group," says June Ip, Principal at Murmur Communications. "I'm always looking for ways to promote women's contributions to business, particularly when it comes to the issue of responsible business practices."

The group will be holding its first event April 7, 2010, and Murmur Communications proudly designed the official invitation and created a LinkedIn page for the group.
